June is a month of celebration. We celebrate the Army’s Birthday, fathers, graduations and Flag Day on June 14th. In communities across the state, the flag will be displayed proudly on front porches, school buildings, local businesses and government buildings. Did you know that Pennsylvania is the only U.S. state to celebrate Flag Day as a state holiday?

This year we celebrate the 241st Army Birthday. Two hundred forty-one years ago, our nation’s leaders established the Continental Army. Today, the Army is the strategic landpower of the joint force; called upon to prevent, shape, and win against our adversaries. We commemorate America’s Army – Soldiers, Families and civilians – who are achieving a level of excellence that is truly Army Strong. We also celebrate our local communities for their steadfast support of our Soldiers and families. We are “America’s Army: The Strength of the Nation”.

Additionally, June is known as the month to celebrate our fathers and graduates. Is your Dad a golfer or bowler? Why not reward him with a gift certificate for a few rounds at the Carlisle Barracks Golf Course or perhaps purchase a few sessions with our golf pro to help improve his game. The pro shop at Carlisle Barracks Golf Course offers a wide range of gear, any of which would be a great gift for the dad who enjoys golf. Visit the Strike Zone Bowling Center to pick up a gift for any Dad who loves to bowl. They have everything from balls to shoes with the largest inventory and most reasonable prices in the area. Our pro shop is also operated by an IBPSIA (International Bowling Pro Shop and Instructor Association) and USBC (United States Bowling Congress) coaching certified professional, which means you’ll get the one-on-one expert advice you deserve when purchasing equipment.

Don’t forget the pools at Fort Indiantown Gap and Carlisle Barracks are open for families to relax and enjoy a break from the summer heat. Whatever your summer plans include please be sure to check out our article on Summer Safety in this issue. The article provides tips on how to enjoy summer activities and avoid seasonal hazards. Here’s to Summer!

Employee Spotlight

Lauren Schooley

Lauren has been an employee of Tieman Child Development Center for four years. She is currently working as a preschool teacher and enjoys watching children grow and learn. Her mother’s twenty eight years dedicated to child care inspired her to work with young children and further her career in childcare by obtaining her Child Development Associate (CDA).
On the Cover
June kicks off summer activities! Whether you are touring Central Pa’s wine country or hanging out poolside at either the Fort Indiantown Gap Pool or Carlisle Barracks’ Splash Zone there are plenty of things to stay busy. If you are looking for some ideas on how to take care of dad this Father’s Day, MWR has you covered. Our Leisure Travel Services sells tickets for a day at Hershey Park or the Baltimore Aquarium, Carlisle Barracks Golf Course offers a beautiful 18 Holes and Outdoor Recreation has activities for those nature loving fathers out there, from hiking and biking to white water rafting. Let us be your “First Choice” this summer.

The Army MWR Credit Card from CHASE

www.chasemilitary.com/army
It is key to know about fuel delivery system cleaning. The first thing to know is how important it is to have a clean fuel system. You need fuel to go, and the cleaner your fuel system is, the more efficiently the fuel will burn. As a result, that means more power and better fuel economy.

A clean fuel system saves money at the pump. One of the most important things you can do to keep your fuel system clean is to buy good quality gas. Major brands have detergents that keep gum and varnish from rapidly building up in the fuel system.

Nowadays, most cars on the road are more than five or six years old. That means they’ve had time for some dirt and rust to start accumulating in the fuel tank. This junk needs to be filtered out of the fuel before it hits your engine; this is the fuel filter’s job. You should have your fuel filter changed when recommended. Check your owner’s manual or ask your service advisor if your fuel filter is due for replacement.

After the fuel goes through the filter, it then goes up into the throttle body. This is another area where varnish and gum can accumulate. A professional fuel system cleaning will use a combination of special cleaning chemicals and old fashioned swabbing to clean out the throttle body.

Lastly, the fuel injectors are the last stop in the fuel delivery system. It’s very important to keep the fuel injectors clean. They are in need to deliver a precise amount of fuel, at exactly the right time, in a particular spray pattern. They can’t do that if they’re dirty. Dirty fuel injectors really deprive power and waste fuel.

It is important for the fuel system to be in good condition, but in addition there are other things that will help keep your engine clean. Of course, air is mixed with the fuel before it’s burned; dirty air means dirt gets into your engine, so you need to replace your engine air filter when it’s dirty.

Do all these things and your engine’s air and fuel will be as clean as possible. You’ll get much better fuel economy and better power.

If you didn’t get a chance to go to the Pennsylvania Greek Festival in May and you are craving the wonderful tastes of Greece, then you are luck. Mechanicsburg has a charming traditional Greek restaurant to satisfy your cravings. Hellenic Kouzina offers the perfect atmosphere for a date night or for an evening out with friends.

Pulling up to the restaurant for the first time, one will see the fire pit tables on the patio where you can eat your dinner and drink. In warmer months, they offer seating in a courtyard with fountain and hanging lights.

The restaurant is “café” style where you order your food and then you sit. Standing in line only makes it harder to choose what you want as you see the food being delivered and smell what the kitchen is cooking up from behind the counter. The menu offers traditional gyros to moussaka, souvlaki, and lamb shanks.

When you go, bring your appetite as portions are large and most are served with your choice of side dishes. It is a very fulfilling meal. Start off with the Saganaki, which is feta flambeed in front of you. It is a delicious beginning to a tasty meal.

Hellenic Kouzina is a charming BYOB café that is a must eat-at restaurant to experience.
Historical Excursions in Lebanon Valley

Author Michael Crichton once said, "If you don't know history, then you don't know anything. You are a leaf that doesn't know it is part of a tree."

Often when someone is born and raised in an area, he takes for granted the gems in his own backyard. The Lebanon Valley has a number of landmarks rich in history that both tourists and residents alike can take advantage of and visit this summer with their families. These historical landmarks offer residents the chance to reconnect with their roots, and visitors the chance to learn more about the local culture.

The Cornwall Iron Furnace

According to the Cornwall Iron Furnace’s website, the landmark “is an extraordinary example of the furnaces that dotted the Pennsylvania countryside in the 18th and 19th centuries” and it is the only surviving furnace of its kind located in the Western Hemisphere. Originally founded in 1742 by Peter Grubb, the furnace switched hands to Robert Coleman in 1798. By 1883, the Cornwall Iron Furnace was out of operation and in 1932 it was donated to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by Robert Coleman’s descendant, Margaret Coleman Freeman Buckingham.

Today, the Cornwall Iron Furnace is open for tours for those interested in stepping back in time to when cannons, stoves, and other products were originally cast in the furnace. Great for school and family trips, the tours cost $8 for regular admission, $4 for junior admission (ages 3-11), and $7 for individuals 65 and older. Anyone interested in learning more about the history of this Lebanon Valley landmark, its hours of operation, or for directions can visit cornwallironfurnace.org or call 717-272-9711.

Lebanon County Historical Society

Located on Cumberland Street in Lebanon, the main street which runs through Lebanon City, the Lebanon County Historical Society is the one-stop shop for anyone interested in delving into the history of the Lebanon Valley. Originally founded in 1898 by local Lebanonians, the historical society didn’t offer public exhibits until 1935.

The Lebanon County Historical Society is comprised of the Hauck Research Archives, the Reese Memorial Hall, a gift shop and the Stoy Museum. In the Hauck Research Archives, those interested in tracing their genealogies, or searching for historic events in the area, can peruse through an expansive collection of church records, federal census records, local newspapers, marriage records, and a variety of manuscripts and photos. There is a nominal fee for using the archives.

The Stoy Museum is a collection of exhibits representing Lebanon County through the years, from its original founding and onward, as well as the area’s Pennsylvania German heritage. When it was first built in the 1780s, the museum was the home of Dr. William Henry Stoy, a minister and doctor. The upper rooms were later used as Lebanon County’s first courthouse (where President James Buchanan practiced). The Stoy Museum features a one-room schoolhouse exhibit, as well as exhibits set up to look like early shops and household rooms, including a Victorian parlor, a pharmacy, a dress shop, and a barber shop.

Tours at the Stoy Museum cost $6 for adults (ages 16-64), $5 for seniors (ages 65 and older), and $3 for students (ages 9-17). Members of the Lebanon County Historical Society and children eight and under are free. For tour schedules and for more information, visit lebanoncountyhistoricalsociety.org or call 717-272-1473.

Union Canal Tunnel

The idea for the Union Canal was originally put forward by William Penn in 1690 to help gain access to the agricultural potential of Pennsylvania and to help found another settlement along the Susquehanna River. The survey conducted for this project between 1762 and 1770 was the first ever conducted in the US.

Work for the canal began in 1792 under the Schuylkill and Susquehanna Canal Co. Due to financial issues, the construction had to cease and wasn’t restarted again until the Union Canal Company of Pennsylvania began it again in 1811. The canal was completed in 1828, though an enlargement of the canal’s 102 locks was carried out in the 1850s. The introduction of the railroad, as well as other factors, led to the closing of the canal in 1885.

Construction for the Union Canal Tunnel itself took place from 1825 through 1827. The tunnel was originally 729 feet long, though it was eventually reduced to 600 feet, and was constructed by hand drilling and by gunpowder blasting. Boats were led along the canal by mules, and were poled through the tunnel as the mules went over the hill.

Currently owned by the Lebanon County Historical Society, the Union Canal Tunnel is the “oldest existing transportation tunnel in the United States” (lebanoncountyhistoricalsociety.org). Individuals and families are invited to go for a narrated boat ride down the Union Canal and through the tunnel to learn more about this historic landmark and to take in the beauty of Union Canal Tunnel Park. Tours cost $8 for adults and $4 for those ages 6 – 18. Children under 6 are free. Union Canal Days are held annually at the landmark as well as other periodic events. For event and tour schedule information, visitors are encouraged to contact the Lebanon County Historical Society.

June is the perfect month to get out on the water in Cumberland Valley.

For a relaxing experience on the water, try one of the many boating opportunities in the Valley. The scenic Children’s Lake in Boiling Springs is a great afternoon escape. The lake can accommodate shallow-draft boats, canoes and electric motor boats.

Another lake experience can be found at Pine Grove Furnace State Park on Laurel Lake. Rentals are available if you don’t have your own. There are also boating opportunities on the calming waters of the two water trails in the area. The Yellow Breeches Creek Water Trail (a PA Designated Scenic River) and the Conodoguinet Creek Water Trail both feature float-trips that are perfect for kayaks. There are also boating opportunities along the sparkling Susquehanna River.

The whole family can discover a beach getaway without the traffic and cost at Colonel Denning State Park or Pine Grove Furnace State Park. Both of these state parks offer sandy beaches and lake swimming. Swimming is also available at a variety of community pools throughout the area. Find a complete list at VisitCumberlandValley.com.

Continue your water adventure with dinner on the Susquehanna River. Enjoy one of the themed Pride of the Susquehanna dinner cruises, from Murder Mystery to Wine and Cheese, or you can enjoy a relaxing afternoon cruise along the water.

Find even more fun things to see and do at VisitCumberlandValley.com. June is also filled with fun events and happenings throughout the Valley. View a sampling below.

Drinking wine is all about the experience. It is becoming increasingly popular to go straight to favorite local vineyards and enjoy an afternoon or evening with wine and laughs on the lawns. Central Pennsylvania offers the perfect setting for your friends to get together and drink wine in a relaxing environment to enjoy the summer hours.

One wouldn’t think of Pennsylvania as a wine producer, but due to its well-draining soil and diverse climate, vineyards are able to produce wines from native grapes or hybrids. According to Pennsylvania Wine Trails, South Central Pennsylvania is host to three of the largest wine trails in PA, the Mason Dixon Wine Trail, the Hershey-Harrisburg Wine Trail, and the Sweet Arrow Wine Trail.

Get to know the red barn at Adams County Winery in Orrtanna, PA. The vineyard is located not far from the battlefields of Gettysburg. There are three locations, and you want to go to the Farm location on Peachtree Road. It is a gorgeous drive on winding roads of Adams County. The farm location offers tours, tastings and other events such as their summer concert series, battlefield wine and cheese tours, and classes on how to make your own wine at home.

While in Adams County, take a drive through the orchards of Adams County and head to Hauser Estates in Biglerville. Bring your own picnic and plan to buy a growler of hard cider or buy a bottle of wine and spend some time in this rural setting. The views of Hauser Estate will take your breath away. You will find dry white wines and smooth reds to enjoy while you sit back and relax to the quiet sounds of the country. Be sure to check their website calendar as you can always find something special happening at Hauser from open mic nights to wine pairings and more.

If you are looking for an outdoor concert where you can walk and enjoy the scenery of Lancaster County and a glass of wine, consider going to Nissley Vineyards in Bainbridge, Pa. Their summer concert series offers five wine on the lawn events. The concerts are held on Saturday evenings in their spacious grass area. Bring a blanket or lawn chairs and a dinner and enjoy the night sky while listening to a variety of music. Nissley offers wines of all types for every wine drinker.

One cannot say summer without thinking of the wonderful places to go in and around Hershey. While known its chocolate, Hershey is also rich in museums and vineyards. The Cassel Vineyards, located on a beautiful horse farm, offers a variety of wines. There are free ranging peacocks to help set the scene. Cassel Vineyards has summer music nights on Friday and Saturday evenings. Bring your own food or buy snacks at the vineyard; you will find a pleasant evening of “Music in the Vines.”

Don’t want to go out to a vineyard, go into Carlisle and enjoy the Castlerigg Wine Shop. Buy a glass of wine from local vineyards or ask to do a tasting of wines. A good place to go for wine and a snack with a group or on a date. A perfect place to sit for the Corvette parade in August. You can also buy bottles of wine there to bring home and have your own “wine on the lawn” evening.

Maybe you are looking for a weekend of wine drinking with your spouse or friends. Be sure to check out these upcoming Pennsylvania wine festivals:

- June 4, 2-9pm: Longwood Gardens Wine and Jazz Festival
- June 25-26: Great Tastes of Pennsylvania Wine and Food Festival @ Split Rock Resort
- August 26-28: Seven Springs Wine Festival @ Seven Springs Mountain Resort
- October 1: Pennsylvania Wine Land Festival @ Montage Mountain, Scranton

Summer is all about relaxing and enjoying casual afternoons and nice evenings with open, starry skies overhead. Central Pennsylvania seems to have it all, history, beautiful landscapes and the vineyards to help enjoy this wonderful state.
