OKTOBERFEST 2014

Here are just a few highlights from Oktoberfest 2014. Games, rides, entertainment, and much more made this Oktoberfest our biggest yet! We hope to see you next year!

what is family and morale, welfare & recreation?

In 1940 a branch within the Army was established known as the Morale Division which later became known as “Special Services.” Family and MWR is a group of men and women who provide support and leisure activities to our Soldiers (active duty, Reserve, and Guard) their Families, military retirees, and civilian employees. Currently working in Family and MWR are approximately 37,000 employees worldwide and their mission is to deliver quality programs to Soldiers and their Families.
Volunteering serves as a key component of civic life, along with charitable giving, community involvement, voting, and other activities. One in four Americans volunteer. Are you one of them? Learn more about volunteering beginning on page 18 in this issue.

Our cars have to operate in a wide range of Central Pennsylvania temperatures and our engine coolant must be able to perform “no matter what.” Think for a moment about the environment where the coolant works. Very hot, high pressure, corrosive.

Coolant needs to protect the components of the cooling system from corrosion. These components are made from steel, aluminum, plastics and rubber. It has to be formulated to protect against corrosion for all of these materials, which is why different manufacturers recommend different types of anti-freeze.

There are several different kinds of anti-freeze; your owner’s manual will tell you which kind to use. It’s important to stay on top of this because coolant system failure is the most common problem people have with their vehicles. Regular service needs to be done to avoid failures and keep your warranty in place.

While the specifics of the service required may vary from vehicle to vehicle, your service consultant will know what to do. You’ll be advised to replace the coolant at specified intervals.

Those spring and winter inspections really come in handy when they head off a coolant system problem. Don’t forget that server service driving conditions, like towing or hot, dusty driving, mean that you’ll need to service your coolant more frequently.

Of course, overheating is a serious problem and you need to get it fixed right away. Our team can make sure the coolant is right before you drive home.

Does the end of the Carlisle car season have you asking yourself, “what now?” The answer may be the Antique Automobile Club of America (AACA) Museum in Hershey. The museum has nearly 100 historic vehicles on display, all donated by fellow car enthusiasts. If cars aren’t your thing, it’s still worth a look. Each car, motorcycle, bus and carriage is meticulously displayed with both technical specs and a history of the vehicle’s journey. Though you can’t sit in the cars, docents stationed throughout the museum are known to pull down the ropes to allow you a closer look.

The museum strives to provide a fun and educational experience for both car-enthusiasts, as well as the not-so-enthusiastic. New displays and programs are featured every few months and appeal to visitors of all ages. So as the weather turns cold and the cars hit the road out of Carlisle, the AACA is the perfect place to get your “car fix.” Even if you’ve had the pleasure of going in the past, it’s worth another trip to check out these great programs.

Tucker Automobile Display
The latest addition to the museum’s permanent collection is Tucker ’48s. Of the original 51, only 47 are known to still be in existence and on October 9 three of these remaining vehicles took their place in the museum’s Cammack Gallery. This represents the largest single collection of visionary Preston Tucker’s dream to build a car of the future. His family has endorsed this exhibit and worked with the museum staff during the building process to create this one-of-a-kind exhibit. Not only are Tucker’s cars and other artifacts on display, but visitors will be taken on an interactive journey into his process for developing and testing these unique automobiles.

Autos and Ales, Nov. 7
The fifth-annual Autos and Ales event will take place November 7 from 6-9 p.m. In addition to the fabulous cars, this event features 27 breweries, live music, cooking demonstrations, a cigar tent and raffles to benefit the Juvenile Diabetes Research Fund. We all know that cars and alcohol don’t mix out on the road, so special discount pricing and a free root beer float are available for your group’s designated driver. This event is typically sold out, so call now for tickets.

Cars and Christmas, Nov. 14 - Jan. 4
The museum will soon be decorated for the holidays with the theme: “what would you like to find under your tree Christmas morning?” Themed trees, train displays, a Hess truck display and holiday-inspired specialty vehicles will surround visitors. A great family photo opportunity awaits in front of Ernie’s taxi, made popular in the movie It’s a Wonderful Life.
This year also marks the 50th Anniversary of the iconic Hess toy truck. To celebrate, Hess’s Toy Truck Mobile Museum will make a stop at the AACA Nov. 30 from 10 a.m.- 4 p.m. This one-day-only event is a must see for collectors and sure to be a hit with the kids.

Make sure the conductor punches your golden ticket when you and your family attend the Polar Express Pajama Party Saturday, December 6 from 6-9 p.m. The museum will provide the popcorn, hot cocoa and other kid-friendly food while you watch the movie. Bring your own pajamas, blankets and stuffed animals!

Permanent Displays
Don’t be concerned that your visit to the museum will be punctuated by pleas from your kids asking “are we done yet?” Even my picky-tween daughter had a fantastic time. Take a break at the counter of a restored 1940’s diner, stomp on the bell of a period gas station or visit the 350-foot Roads to Rails model train display. Set in the 1950’s, fictional “Tuckerville” is a free, interactive display where kids (and adults) can operate a full-service car wash, drive-in movie theater and much more.

If a trip to Hershey is synonymous with chocolate, the AACA won’t let you down. The Hershey Kissmobile is on long-term loan from the Hershey Company. The Kissmobile features three, 12-foot Kisses and is on display most days. If this is a ‘must see’ item for you call the museum in advance to ensure it is not making a special appearance elsewhere that day. Sweet tooth still not satisfied? Hershey’s Chocolate World is just down the hill from the museum. Admission and parking are free when visiting Chocolate World.

The AACA is located at 161 Museum Drive in Hershey, less than 40 miles from Carlisle and only 15 miles from Fort Indiantown Gap. They are open from 9 a.m. – 5 p.m. daily, excluding some holidays and special events. They generously offer free daily admission to active duty military with id. and free admission for Veterans on Veterans Day. Check out their website at aacamuseum.org for additional information.

Representing only one percent of our population in the United States, our military willingly takes on the ultimate responsibility of protecting our entire nation.

Missing small moments of each day that we often take for granted here at home, as well as irreplaceable milestones like birthdays, anniversaries, graduations with the people they love, our Service members make incredible sacrifices and put themselves in harm’s way for the sake of us all.

They do not make these sacrifices alone. When our troops are called to action, so too are their families.

In their unconditional support and care for of those in harm’s way, military families show us what words like “service,” “strength,” and “sacrifice” truly mean.

They sustain the troops that are defending America, tend for our wounded warriors, and survive our fallen. Military families – spouses and children alike – remind us that with everything these families do to serve our country, in turn their nation has an obligation to serve them.

The needs of our military families cannot be met solely in Washington, nor by improving the support provided by government alone. It is up to the other 99 percent to make sure that these families are receiving the respect and consideration they so deserve.

Did you know...

• There are 1.9 million children, ranging in ages from newborn to 18 years old, who are the children of our military—1.3 million of whom are school-aged.

• Of our military children, 765,000 have Active duty parents, and 225,000 with a parent who is currently deployed.

• 73,000 Service members are Active duty single parents, and 40,000 are Active duty dual military parents.

There are many ways to offer support for our military families, recognizing the various factors that are an everyday part of life in the military- both as Service member and family member.

In many cases, military spouses move from one community to another when their spouses are assigned to new duty stations. These transfers can make it very difficult for spouses to continue with their careers, as well as trying to habitually find similar jobs in their new locations. Employment is often considered an essential for many military spouses, especially when left to maintain their household and carry on while loved ones are deployed.

Military children move frequently due to a parent/parents’ reassignments. These moves can sometimes make it difficult to transfer records, secure spaces in courses, and complete required testing on time. There are also additional adjustments needed sometimes due to changing schools and children’s abilities to stay included in extra-curricular activities such as sports and other programs.

The stress of war, multiple deployments, and frequent moves can sometimes affect the wellness of military families. Children and spouses are often faced with ever-changing circumstances as well as constant concern regarding the well-being and safety of loved ones serving our country and fighting our wars. They must learn to cope with anxiety, changes in relationships with family and friends, and other emotional challenges in dealing with deployments, illness or injury, and high mobility.

Additionally, members of our National Guard and Reserves as well as their families also face distinct challenges unique to their own service, as they often live great distances from military communities where they could receive support and services. Our “citizen-soldiers” and their families are our friends and neighbors, and our teachers and local small business owners, but they drop everything and report to duty when called.

Introducing the new 2014 Winter Collection from PANDORA
The name “Gettysburg” is known throughout the world because of the famous Civil War battle that came to the small Pennsylvania town 151 years ago. That, and President Abraham Lincoln’s decision to use this war-torn town as a symbolic backdrop to one of the world’s most famous speeches – the Gettysburg Address.

Today, visitors from around the world are visiting Gettysburg, PA, to learn, pay their respects, and reflect in one of America’s most historic destinations, but once they arrive they find a wealth of experiences beyond history, beyond the Civil War.

IN GETTYSBURG, FOOD IS SECOND ONLY TO HISTORY.

The town of just 8,000 residents welcomes more than 3.5 million people annually, and those visitors are enjoying unique cuisine, great wine, and hard cider, as well as a growing beer industry. Gettysburg’s incredible restaurants, taverns and inns, as well as the many events centered around food, wine, and beer are turning heads throughout the country.

Just to the north and west of the famous battlefields in Gettysburg is the heart of Pennsylvania’s Fruit Belt. Reaching to the hills and valleys just south of Carlisle, PA, and over west to Chambersburg, PA, the Fruit Belt features a variety of fruit and vegetables, but its mainstay is the apple.

The Gettysburg region is one of the largest apple growing regions in the United States, and features 20,000 acres of apple trees, hundreds of fruit farms, 25 farmers markets and three wineries – all within a 30-minute drive of Downtown Gettysburg.
This apple industry is the heart and soul behind some of the region’s top culinary experiences and products – including hard cider, wine, food, and the growing trend behind buying food straight from the farm.

Gettysburg’s three wineries – Adams County Winery, Hauser Estate Winery and Reid’s Orchard & Winery – are all located in the hills northwest of Gettysburg, PA, and just southwest of Carlisle – less than a 45-minute drive. Each features a great variety of red and white wine, but all three incorporate the local apple into its recipes, and two are seeing great success in the new trend in hard cider.

Because of this, others have come to the table – Good Intent Cider and Bill Hill Cider Works in northern Adams County, PA. Such cider makers, along with the wineries, farmers markets and a host of other attractions, lodging and restaurants, can all be experienced through the Gettysburg Wine & Fruit Trail, which has just recently expanded beyond the Gettysburg countryside and into neighboring communities, such as Carlisle.

Just outside Gettysburg, in northern Maryland, is Catoctin Breeze Vineyard in Thurmont, MD. Visitors to Gettysburg enjoy taking the short drive to Catoctin to experience this boutique winery.

In Gettysburg, visitors are enjoying a variety of craft beer – especially after a day of tour the town and the battlefield or a day on the golf course. Appalachian Brewing Company – headquartered in Harrisburg with several locations – has just opened up its second restaurant in Gettysburg and features a wide selection of its beer – some brewed in Harrisburg and others brewed right here in Gettysburg.

Battlefield Brew Works, using a historic barn dating back to pre-Civil War times, is one of the town’s newest culinary experiences. With seven varieties of beer, it’s quickly becoming one of the destination’s go-to places. Battlefield Brew Works’ profits from its own Red Circle Ale goes directly to The Red Circle Foundation which supports the injured Special Operations Men and Women of our Armed forces. 100% of your donations goes directly to the mission! http://battlefieldbrewworks.com

Old Republic Distillery in nearby York, PA, is the first limited distillery in the region and they specialize in small batch, handcrafted distilled spirits – including some of their signature spirits like Apple Pie Moonshine, Battlefield Vodka and Love Potion.

The Gettysburg Wine & Fruit Trail and Mason-Dixon Wine Trail are the perfect way to see a variety of culinary experiences in and around Gettysburg. They are helping visitors understand the origins of great food, wine, beer and cider and putting travelers up close to agriculture.

Events such as the annual Gettysburg Brew Fest (August), the Gettysburg Wine & Music Festival (September), and the upcoming Hibrewnation on Jan. 17 at the AllStar Family Fun & Sports Complex in Gettysburg – are introducing visitors to the great food, wine and beer experiences in Gettysburg.

For more information on culinary experiences throughout the Gettysburg region, visit www.destinationgettysburg.com.

Family Volunteer Day
A SIGNATURE POINTS OF LIGHT DAY OF SERVICE
BY: Jacqueline Chicchi
Army Volunteer Corps Program Manager

Volunteering has a positive effect on your community — and it’s good for you too. Volunteering is for all ages! Ben, a college freshman who did volunteer fund-raising work, calls it “a win-win situation.” He says, “You feel good because you’re helping others, and the others feel good because they’re getting help.” Whether you are a high school student looking for opportunities to add to your college applications while exploring career options or a recent retiree with a few hours a week to spare, there are thousands of opportunities where you can lend your time and talent. Volunteering as a family has the added benefit of spending quality time together while lending a hand in your community.

Family Volunteer Day is a day of service that demonstrates and celebrates the power of families who volunteer together, supporting their neighborhoods, communities and the world. Points of Light created the day 22 years ago to showcase the benefits of family volunteering and provide opportunities for families to help communities create supportive environments for their children and each other. This year Family Volunteer Day takes place on November 22 and is being sponsored by Disney Friends for Change and powered by generationOn.

Family Volunteer Day is strategically held on the Saturday before Thanksgiving to “kick-off” the holiday season with giving and service. It also signals the start of National Family Week, sponsored by the Alliance for Children and Families and the Annie E. Casey Foundation.

Families that volunteer together not only address community social problems, but also strengthen themselves. Volunteering together as a family provides quality time, strengthens family communication, and provides opportunities for family members to be role models.

Volunteering as a family is something special you can all do together to help teach your kids about thinking larger than themselves.

Whether there are two of you or you have a big extended family, if you combine efforts to help others - that’s volunteering!

Besides the wonderful benefits to your community, there are many benefits for your family. Volunteering together enhances values such as kindness, compassion and tolerance, plus family members learn new skills and feel appreciated for their contributions and talents.

Want more reasons to volunteer as a family? Look at these great benefits!

• Gain quality family time.
• Strengthen bonds when you share the experience.
• Give family members an opportunity to lead.
• Increase commitment to your community

Stop in anytime at Carlisle Barracks Army Community Service at 632 Wright Avenue. Our Army Volunteer Corps Program Manager stands ready to help you make the right match. Visit our website at http://carlislebarracks.carlisle.army.mil/acs/volunteering.cfm; Volunteering can help you to build your resume, contribute to the community, meet new people, share expertise, gain new skills and work experience, and be challenged. Volunteering enriches the quality of life for Soldiers, Family members, retirees, and civilians.

SAFE HARBOUR
Each year, during the week before Thanksgiving, the National Coalition for the Homeless and the National Student Campaign Against Hunger and Homelessness co-sponsor National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week. During this week, schools and communities take part in a nationwide effort to bring greater awareness to the problems of hunger and homelessness. Safe Harbour is participating in this national effort with its 12th Annual “One Night Without A Home” awareness sleep out, held this year on November 22-23, 2014, at Dickinson College.
RETIRED SENIOR VOLUNTEER PROGRAM (RSVP) a Points of Light program, is one of the largest volunteer networks in the nation for people 55 and over. You can use the skills and talents you’ve learned over the years, or develop new ones while serving in a variety of volunteer activities within your community.

RSVP of the Capital Region, Inc. is a volunteer-based organization serving the Central PA region for more than 40 years. They recruit, train and place volunteers in not-for-profit agencies, schools, government offices, hospitals and senior residences. Volunteers serve communities in Adams, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Lancaster, Lebanon, Perry, and York Counties.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY AGING & COMMUNITY SERVICES is actively recruiting new volunteers for its APPRISE Program, the state health insurance counseling program. If you are interested in helping senior citizens understand the complex Medicare system and the difficult decisions facing them, then this is the challenging and rewarding volunteer opportunity for you. State and local trainings will be offered in the near future. Trained volunteers will have flexibility in deciding the time commitment they can make to the program.

People interested in becoming APPRISE volunteers, or seeking additional information, may contact Aging & Community Services at (717) 240-6110, or by email at aging@ccpa.net

PROJECT SHARE: Volunteering your time, skills and talent are great ways to help. Without enough hands, Project Share would not be able to serve the approximately 1,000 families and 3,000+ individuals that come to us for help each month. We need your help! Whether you have two hours a month to four hours a day, your neighbors in need will appreciate the time you are investing in changing their lives. People of all skill levels are needed – from help with sorting, preparing and handing out food, to technical and computer assistance, there is a place for you to use your talents. Some of the other jobs and areas Project Share needs help with are: kitchen help, warehouse assistance including in the cooler and freezer, drivers (both Class A and B), sorting clothing, office assistance, hospitality, gleaning, working at the farm stand, serving on a committee, helping with numerous special events, IT work, educating recipients on proper nutrition, help with marketing, and cleaning. Take action and contact our volunteer coordinator to get involved.

How you can help throughout the year.

As the needs of recipients change, so do their needs. You can help by providing:

- Canned food – most needed items include canned tuna & chicken, beef stew, soup, canned pasta, spaghetti sauce, and macaroni & cheese.
- Produce – Project Share is always trying to give nutritious, fresh produce to their recipients. Consider donating any extra from your farm or garden.
- Cardboard – bundled cardboard donations are sold to help fund the operation. Drop off your corrugated cardboard at Project Share’s docks anytime.
- Clothing – please place your donations in our on-site bin for our partner, Community Aid.
- Grocery Bags - Donate reusable plastic and cloth grocery bags and egg cartons.

THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKETS: It’s that time of year again, time to start collecting Thanksgiving dinner bags for Project Share recipients. As always you have two options, you can either go grocery shopping and purchase the items on the list yourself, or you can make a monetary donation that’s equivalent to the list and let Project Share do the shopping for you. Visit the Project Share website at projectshare.net for the list that outlines all of the items that need to be purchased or the monetary equivalent. We need all of the dinner bags or the donations dropped off here by November 17th. Our operating hours are Monday – Friday from 8 am to 4 pm.

For links to many more volunteer opportunities visit pointsoflight.org or volunteermatch.org. Information for this article was provided by the Points of Light Foundation and individual non-profit agencies. To explore volunteer opportunities at Carlisle Barracks visit Army Community Service at 632 Wright Avenue, or call us 717-245-4357.
The holiday season is fast-approaching. Whether your to-do list includes welcoming guests, preparing special family meals or checking things off your holiday shopping list, Cumberland Valley’s amenities will have you covered.

’Tis the season for fun events in the Valley. View a few highlights below and find a complete list of events at visitcumberlandvalley.com/events-calendar.

Camp Michaux Walking Tour @ Pine Grove Furnace State Park – November 8th
David Smith will lead this popular walking tour of the old Bunker Hill Farm from 1787-1919: Pine Grove Furnace CCC Camp S-51-PA from 1933-1942; Pine Grove Furnace POW Interrogation Camp from 1943-1945; and finally the United Church of Christ & United Presbyterian Church Camp from 1947-1972.

Genealogy Series @ Cumberland County Historical Society – November 10th-24th
Are you interested in finding out about your ancestors? The fall series will open the doors to some brand new resources. Deborah Sweaney, local genealogist, will share her enthusiasm and the new resources she has discovered for genealogy. The series will be helpful for everyone, even if your ancestors were not from Cumberland County.

South Mountain Speakers Series: Changing Climate and the South Mountain Region @ Dickinson College – November 13th
Climate change is a controversial topic, and explanations for its cause are debated in government, in the media, and around the dinner table. Look further and the long and short term ramifications of climate change emerge, and may be investigated at multiple levels, from global to local. Join us for an evening of information and discussion about how climate change is affecting the South Mountain and Pennsylvania.

Shippensburg University - Community Orchestra Fall Concert @ The Luhrs Center – November 23rd
The Shippensburg University - Community Orchestra will perform classic pieces from Debussy’s delightful Petit Suite to Haydn’s Symphony 101, known as “The Clock,” to one of the great crowd pleasers of the orchestra repertoire. Tchaikovsky’s violin concerto. Guest soloist for the concerto will be Canadian violinist Sarah Pratt.

Small Business Saturday in Downtown Mechanicsburg – November 29th
Come on down to Downtown Mechanicsburg for Small Business Saturday! It’s a day to celebrate and support small businesses and all they do for their communities. This is a great time to get started on your holiday shopping lists with all of the unique finds in Mechanicsburg’s boutique stores.
