September is the month we start to look forward to Children going back to school, exchanging hot Summer Days in the pool for cool Fall evenings by the bonfire. September and the fall months are always a special time for our military community. We at MWR are striving to meet your needs and provide you with the best experiences South-Central Pennsylvania has to offer! There are numerous festivities custom designed by us at Family and MWR that will redefine your definition of fun!

September brings two of our favorite Fall activities. September 7, 5-7pm, we will be hosting a Doggie Dip and Yappy Hour at the “Splash Zone” Swimming Pool. Bring your furry friends to enjoy a night of fun, splash contests and an open swim for canines! Before & Afterwards, 4-10pm head on over to the Tiki Bar for Drink Specials and Food Truck, Nomad Cuisine and Mad Dash Artisan Grilled Cheese. On September 9th, 7am-2pm, everyone is welcome to the Fall Yard Sale. Sell your unwanted treasures at your house, rent space to sell on Indian Field or shop at the projected hundred plus spots throughout Post.

October brings more fun and family time to The U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center, October 5-8. Come out and enjoy carnival rides, live music, great food, the beer and wine garden and much more at Central Pennsylvania’s take on this wonderful German celebration.

Perhaps you may decide to traverse one of our area’s countless mountain trails, painted in hues of yellow and orange by our famous autumn foliage. Our Outdoor Recreation and Leisure Travel staff are always here to help you; whether you are looking for a challenging hike or a relaxing nature walk, or even a trip outside of the Central Pennsylvania region. School is also well underway for the youth of our community and with it comes the many afterschool programs and activities that our Child and Youth Services has to offer. Our programming for youth and teens offers a variety of recreation that is sure to meet the needs of your children.

Whether you are a service member, retiree or DoD civilian, we are here for you and your family. Excellence is our standard and we find it a great privilege to provide you and your family with only the best. Come join MWR in celebrating another unforgettable Fall season. We look forward to serving you!

WWW.1STCHOICEMAG.COM | SEPTEMBER 2017 11
Dear Legal Eagle,

Back in April, my 1989 beater with 253,589 miles finally gave up the ghost, and I went down to my local Wrecks-4-Less to buy a new (to me) 2015 vehicle—only 12,249 miles. I'm not much of a car guy, but I fell in love with the burnt sienna pearl color, and when I sat in the faux pig leather upholstered seats, I just knew I had to drive home with this car. Well, since then it has given me nothing but trouble. It started a week after I bought the car; an incessant pinging noise turned into a rattle every time I rolled away from a stop—as my teenaged daughter says, “sooo embarrassing!” No mechanic has been able to find an apparent cause, and I have spent hundreds trying to investigate it. Next, the seats started pilling and the electric seat adjustment function quit. I could go on and on, but the last straw happened when we had the heat wave a few weeks ago, and my air conditioner started blowing hot air instead. I feel cheated; what should I do? Isn’t there a Lemon Law that I can use to force Wrecks-4-Less to compensate me for some of this? —Soured Driver

Dear Soured:

This certainly sounds like quite a pickle that you’re in. No doubt you’ve already put thousands of dollars into this car, both in repairs and purchase price. You should first look at your purchase/sale contract to see whether Wrecks-4-Less included any type of warranty for the vehicle. If so, review carefully the terms that spell out the scope of the warranty—especially what types of defects it covers and for how long. Commonly, however, used vehicles are sold “as-is.” What that means is that the seller does not make any representations about the condition of the vehicle. When that is the case, potential buyers should consider having a qualified mechanic check out the vehicle before making the purchase to know what quality of automobile they will be buying.

Contrary to popular belief, the so-called “Lemon Law,” of which all 50 states have a version, does not cover used car purchases. The law gives a purchaser recourse against the manufacturer of a new vehicle. Specifically, under the Pennsylvania version of the law, the manufacturer must, at no cost to the purchaser, repair or correct any defect which substantially impairs the use, value or safety of the vehicle and occurs within one year after delivery, or 12,000 miles of use, or the term of the manufacturer’s express warranty, whichever comes first. More on this on another day…

Legal Eagle is brought to you this month by CPT Katie Dang, U.S. Army Judge Advocate. The information contained herein is provided for informational purposes only and should not be construed as legal advice.

Octoberfest is the world’s largest Volksfest, a beer festival and traveling funfair. This event is held annually in Munich, Bavaria, Germany and lasts 16 days. This folk festival begins towards the end of September and lasts until the first weekend of October. More than 6 million people from around the world come to attend this festival every year. Oktoberfest began in 1810 when Crown Price Ludwig, who later became King Ludwig I, was married to Princess Therese of Saxony-Hildburghausen. and they invited the citizens of Munich to attend the festivities to celebrate their marriage. It has since become a very important part of the Bavarian culture. Other Oktoberfests are held around the world and they are all modeled off the original one held in Munich.

Oktoberfest is known for the large quantities of Oktoberfest Beer that is served and the traditional, popular German dishes. Many individuals look forward to Schweinebraten (roasted pork), Schweinshaxe (grilled ham hock), Steckerlfisch (grilled fish on a stick), Würstl (sausages) along with Brezen (pretzels), Knödel (potato or breaded dumplings), Käsespätzle (cheese noodles), Reiberdatschi (potato pancakes), Sauerkraut or Rotkohl/Blaukraut (red cabbage) along with other Bavarian delicacies that will be served during this 16 day festival. Along with the popular foods and drinks, visitors enjoy attractions, amusement rides, and games.

We here at Family and MWR host an annual Oktoberfest and want to bring a little piece of German tradition right into your very own backyard. We thought this would be a great way to let families unwind, spend time together and enjoy some German traditions.

Oktoberfest this year will be held at The U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center (AHEC) on October 5-8. There will be fun for all ages including a carnival, musical entertainment, games, a dog costume contest, craft fair, a live performance of An Iliad, and the revealing and tapping of the Official AY 18 War College Brew. Visit carlisleoktoberfest.com for more information and a schedule of events. There is ample parking on site and handicapped and auxiliary parking if needed. While at the event, you can treat yourself with a variety of foods provided by numerous vendors, beer and wine gardens or enjoy the carnival with friends and family.
